Brief description of the activity/event:

On 21 August, 2023, Department of history in collaboration with IQAC has organised an 'Anchoring Competition' among the students of Pragjyotish college (inter-departmental). There are eight competitors. Faculties of other departments and students attended the event. Dr. Avijit Kumar Dutta, assistant Professor, Department of English judged the competition. It was a unique event as for the first time 'Anchoring Competition' was held in Pragjyotish college. The object of the competition was to motivate the students for anchoring in public meeting, cultural program or some other special events as anchoring can be taken as a profession. First, second and third positions were secured by Partha Pratim Kalita (Philosophy Department), Riya Das (Economics Department) and Kunal Deka (H.S. 2nd year) respectively.
